

Change through People

Training programme and service guide 2021

Managing teams

Training & presentation

People skills

Mental health & wellbeing

Complex needs

Drugs & alcohol

Independent consultancy

Bring out the best in your organisation

Improve service outcomes by building a confident and competent workforce

The Training Exchange services

Courses for individuals in Bristol and online 2021 – You come to us

Enjoy the benefits of learning in multi-agency groups with people from a range of backgrounds in public, private and voluntary sectors, including health & social care, criminal justice, housing & homelessness, education, workplace wellbeing, youth & community. (See course listings overleaf)

Costs (including certificates and training packs)

Half day courses £100 (+VAT) 1 day courses £150 (+VAT) 2 day courses £250 (+VAT) *

* Mental Health First Aid courses £175-275 (+VAT) including manual and certification from MHFA England

* Management & leadership £275 (+VAT)

Two concessionary places are available on each course. Visit our website for full terms and conditions.

Venues and times

All courses take place online or at accessible venues in Bristol.

Courses start at 9.30am (or 1.30 for pm half days) and end by 4.30pm.

Seven ways to build resilience – Video based online course

In times of uncertainty resilience skills can support our ability to withstand, deal with and/or recover from difficult situations.

Three hours of video content offering practical strategies based on Chris Johnstone's book, Seven Ways to Build Resilience. Divided into short, easy to watch episodes, the course introduces insights and strategies that strengthen your ability to deal with difficult times, and describes seven essential skills that help your resilience grow.

An effective and affordable support package for staff, that they can access whenever is convenient.

Cost: £30 +VAT for individual places, with discounted fees for group bookings:

£30 +VAT per person for 1 to 9 people

£20 +VAT for 50 to 99 people

£25 +VAT for 10 to 49 people

£15 +VAT for 100 to 499 people.

The resource includes downloadable handouts and templates for staff working with young people and adults wanting to protect their own wellbeing, alongside promoting self-help skills in others. Individuals can have access to the resource for up to a year, so can work through materials at their own pace, and revisit the learning over time.

'Your work is incredibly valuable. This on-line course has been our most popular training support so far.'
Local Authority Workplace Wellbeing Lead.

Contact us for further details

The Training Exchange

Easton Business Centre, Bristol BS5 0HE

phone 0117 941 5859

email info@trainingexchange.org.uk

An independent company with a 24 year track record of providing consistently high quality training, learning and professional development opportunities.

In-house training for teams – We come to you

Do you have a whole team that would benefit from our training or would it be more practical for us to come to you? All of the courses in this brochure and many more can be adapted for your organisation or your region. We work across the UK, face-to-face and online.

In addition to our courses listed overleaf, we regularly deliver in-house:

ASIST - Applied Suicide Intervention Skills

Mental health awareness

Personality disorder awareness

Self injury

Callers in crisis

Addressing ACES and complex trauma

Assessment & case management

Training for trainers

Drug & alcohol awareness

Controlled drinking programme

Harm reduction

Children's safeguarding

Lone working

Conflict resolution

Effective communication

Building effective teams

Project work and consultancy

Use our specialist knowledge and skills to improve outcomes, shape practice and redesign services. Contact us to discuss how we can support your workforce and organisational development needs.

"The Training Exchange works with a clear learning approach – so is always drawing on best practice and the most up-to-date information and knowledge in both training and consultancy work. They have the experience and expertise necessary to do the work commissioned and always deliver to deadline."

Public Health Service Manager feedback

The Training Exchange team comprises associate trainers and consultants who are experts in their fields. Our work is grounded in current evidence, policy and good practice. Use our expertise in organising, designing and delivering training and development activities to maximise your investment.

www.trainingexchange.org.uk

People skills

Groupwork skills

Two day course 8 & 9 June 2021 (f-to-f) and 10 & 11 November 2021 (f-to-f)

Trainer Susan Lawrence

Understand the key stages of group process to develop your confidence in group facilitation. Identify practical ways to overcome problems in groups, practise co-facilitation and develop creative methods to apply in your own setting.

Motivational interviewing

Two day course 22 & 23 June 2021 (f-to-f)

Trainer Phil Harris

Develop an understanding of the spirit and principles of motivational interviewing. Participants practise skills to deepen assessment processes and to help people to reflect on behaviours and consequences, engage with support services, and strengthen their motivation and commitment to positive change.

Challenging & aggressive behaviour

One day course 8 July 2021 (f-to-f)

Trainer Susan Lawrence

A practical stepped approach to containing and responding safely and confidently to incidents in the workplace. Understand what's behind the behaviour and develop essential communication techniques and practical strategies to build confidence to defuse and de-escalate challenging and aggressive situations.

Brief solution focused therapy

One day course 5 October 2021 (f-to-f)

Trainer Phil Harris

Learn about this action-orientated intervention that can be highly successful in helping people implement change. Explore questions and techniques to draw on people's internal resources, enhance useful behaviours and build solutions; and practise the key skills needed to help people identify clear goals and pathways for themselves.

Professional boundaries

Half day course 16 November 2021 (am online)

Trainer Clare Lucas

Clarify professional boundaries for staff to work positively, effectively and safely with vulnerable people. Discuss the importance of boundaries for service users, staff and organisations; identify where boundaries become blurred or violated; evaluate specific risks associated with social media; and learn essential strategies to maintain a healthy balance between personal and professional life.

Adult safeguarding

Half day course 2 December 2021 (am online)

Trainer Clare Lucas

Drawing on current legislation, develop understanding of the categories of abuse and possible indicators, and identify how to respond to safeguarding disclosures and concerns. Consider why clients who face increased risk might not report abuse, good practice in preventing abuse and neglect and new ideas for improved multi agency working.

Mental health & wellbeing

Responding to mental health crisis

Half day course 13 May 2021 (am online)

Trainer Sal Ball

For staff who are the first point of contact for service users, this course develops face-to-face, telephone and online communication skills to respond safely, appropriately and confidently to people experiencing a range of mental health crises. Participants reflect on challenging situations and learn the key principles of supportive responses to people thinking about suicide.

CBT tools for stress and anxiety

One day course 10 June 2021 (f-to-f)

Trainer Suzanne Pearson

An introduction to the cognitive behavioural approach to understanding and addressing excessive stress and anxiety difficulties. Learn practical tools and techniques that can be used to assist people to better manage stress and reduce the impact of anxiety on their day-to-day life and develop resilience in a range of contexts including work-place, support roles and personal life.

Adult Mental Health First Aid

Two day course 24 & 25 June 2021 (f-to-f)

Trainer 19 & 20 October 2021 (f-to-f)

Trainer Suzanne Pearson

Mental Health First Aid provides a framework for understanding and responding to anxiety, depression, self-harm, suicide risk and psychosis; and for promoting wellbeing to create a mentally healthy environment in your workplace, service or community. You'll learn how to recognise the signs of mental health problems; develop confidence to reassure individuals in distress and link them to resources and services that can help.

Youth Mental Health First Aid

Two day course 29 & 30 June 2021 (f-to-f)

Trainer Suzanne Pearson

For supporting young people 8-18, this course develops understanding and confidence to spot the signs of mental health issues, respond effectively, and link young people to resources and services that can help. You will leave with a handbook and tools to support early intervention, promote wellbeing, respond to crisis and create a mentally healthy environment in your family, school, service or community.

Understanding personality disorder in practice

One day course 23 September 2021 (f-to-f)

Trainer Suzanne Pearson

Develop practical approaches to work effectively with people with personality disorder life difficulties. Using key psychological theories and models, the course explores the contested nature of this diagnostic category, the impact of stigma, potential interpersonal challenges and the importance of staff self-awareness and self-care in practice.

See overleaf for further information and costs

Self harm and suicide intervention

One day course 7 October 2021 (f-to-f)

Trainer Suzanne Pearson

Develop your awareness and identify good practice in responding to individuals who self harm; understand background factors and functions, and consider implications for support. Recognise what's different about self harming behaviour and suicide intent, where there is a connection related to risk and build on approaches to engaging with individuals who have thoughts of suicide to promote and plan for their safety.

Resilience skills

2 x Half days am 4 & 18 November 2021 (online)

Trainer Chris Johnstone

Strength-building positive psychology interventions of proven effectiveness; for staff wanting to protect their own well-being, alongside promoting self-help skills in the people they work with. Resilience training has been shown to reduce the risk of depression and anxiety. Delivered over 2 weeks with space in-between to practise skills, the course uses a combination of video based content and live webinars.

Drugs & alcohol

Addiction, dependency & recovery

One day course 13 October 2021 (f-to-f)

Trainer Phil Harris

Exploring the role of drugs within society, the factors that contribute to the drug using experience, how people change and the routes to recovery. Learn what tolerance, withdrawal, addiction and dependency mean and how this relates to a clear understanding of recovery. This comprehensive overview will develop or refresh your confidence to work with drug and alcohol users.

Supporting recovery: Preventing relapse

One day course 17 November 2021 (online)

Trainer Phil Harris

Based on the latest research in recovery from problematic drug and alcohol use, this course offers a clear map of the recovery processes and the key challenges those in recovery face. Drawing on social learning theory, clinical research and practical examples, participants explore models and techniques to support clients through each phase of their recovery and practise key skills to address the risk of relapse.

Dual diagnosis

One day course 2022 date TBC

Trainer Phil Harris

A day of learning and reflection on the complexities of dual diagnosis. Participants explore the interactions between mental illness and substance misuse, establish a framework for assessment and identify evidence based approaches to effective management and treatment for this client group.

Complex needs

Working with stuck clients

One day course 6 July 2021 (f-to-f)
1 December (online)

Trainer Phil Harris

Resistance to change is an inevitable part of psychological therapies work. This course provides critical insight into the principle sources of resistance in the client, in the practitioner and in the language. It describes traps we easily fall in to with resistant clients and how to avoid them. Participants develop an extensive tool box of practical skills and techniques to navigate resistance and develop change even with the most psychologically stuck clients.

Practical management of PTSD

One day course 15 June 2021 (f-to-f)
26 November (online)

Trainer Phil Harris

Develop understanding of the impact of trauma the differences between Acute Stress Disorder, PTSD and Complex PTSD; and explore how the brain organises trauma memories leading to the experience of intrusive memories, flash backs and avoidance strategies. This course offers participants a clear structured stepped intervention to support people experiencing PTSD. Moving from initial interventions to support clients to process emotional responses, it provides a set of practical interventions to support people change key symptoms of trauma.

Sustaining empathy: Preventing burnout

One day course 14 July 2021 (f-to-f)

Trainer Sal Ball

Designed specifically for supporters keen to explore their own responses and deepen empathy, this reflective day provides participants with a safe space to explore why they feel challenged by certain clients and how the support relationship can be strengthened. Developing advanced empathy skills, the course considers what happens when change is hard, how to avoid compassion fatigue and remain hopeful and helpful for individuals with complex needs.

Working with young people with complex needs

One day course 29 September 2021 (f-to-f)

Trainer Phil Harris

Young people face unique stresses, pressures and transitions that are reflected in their experience of substance misuse, offending and mental health problems. Explore key issues in adolescent development as a backdrop to understanding how young people experience problems. Gain a deep understanding of adolescent complexity and practise a range of interventions to help them reduce difficulties.

Contact us for more information and detailed course outlines

0117 941 5859

info@trainingexchange.org.uk

Courses in Bristol and Online 2021

Book online at

www.trainingexchange.org.uk

or request a booking form by email

info@trainingexchange.org.uk

or phone 0117 941 5859

*Course dates may be subject to change
Visit our website for up-to-date information*

Facilitating reflective practice

Half day course 9 December 2021 (am online)

Trainer Susan Moores

A dynamic and interactive day for those supporting or managing staff. Explore definitions and models to inform approaches and share ideas on integrating reflective practice into all aspects of service delivery. Through discussion, observation and practising creative tools, participants will develop confidence and leave better equipped to support and facilitate reflective practice.

Training & presentation

Introduction to visual facilitation

One day course 27 May 2021 (f-to-f)

Trainer Ruth Hallett

Develop confidence to use graphic techniques for personal organisation, in training & presentation, meeting facilitation and one-to-one work. Use this innovative and creative approach to summarise and organise ideas, promote reflection, reduce barriers to communication, increase engagement and energise collaborative processes. No artistic skills required!

Training for trainers

One day course 14 October 2021 (f-to-f)

Trainer Jo Bush

Explore the essentials of effective training to create or refresh your own courses. Apply learning theory, use tools for training design, experience a range of creative methods, discuss ideas for group management and learn tips for using resources to bring out the best in your training and your learners.

Speaking with confidence

One day course 15 October 2021 (f-to-f)

Trainer Susan Lawrence

Develop your skills to communicate with clarity and confidence in meetings, presentations, training and other work-related settings. Drawing on assertiveness techniques, consider personal fears and challenges, pick up tips to improve delivery and develop a style that works for you.

www.trainingexchange.org.uk